

Caring for my community is all about love

That happy feeling, gentle as a dove

You could plant a fun garden for community service

Or pick up trash at that playground you missed

Help all those animals, at the shelter down the street

Or make some meals for others to eat

You could foster a child, or adopt a family

And donate your old toys to a child in need

That wonderful feeling sends you soaring above

Caring for my community is all about love